Pride is interpreted by some to mean conceit. To Frankfort students, however, pride is the self-respect that allows us to settle for nothing less than the best from ourselves.

Taking pride in our team, despite a 6-4 season, players refused to show disappointment, and, instead, tried only harder to succeed.

Pride to band members meant precision and harmony which was recognized with first place honors in parade and field show competitions.

Outside of school, students exhibited community pride by contributing services to local organizations. Fire companies in Ridgeley, Wiley Ford, Short Gap, and Fort Ashby involved students. Through church youth groups, many found themselves working to better their community.

Pride in their own talents led many students to not only improve clubs and organizations but to improve themselves. Keeping their cars waxed to a mirror shine exhibited the pride of some individuals. Vocational students took pride in their skills while academic students took pride in their grade point averages. Many displayed this trait by achieving awards or goals in personal recreation or by just being the best friend they could be. Pride was exhibited in the appearance of Frankfort students as they walked around with their chins tipped slightly higher than the average person's.

The 3:20 bell sends an elated group of students to their lockers. Trying to remember what homework to do, we hurriedly search for books, and with a final slam of locker doors, we put the school day behind us.

With pride in our achievements, some of us scurried off to after-school practices, trudging down the field or hustling around the court for several hours.

Others raced home to fill their time with chores, work, dance, sports, hobbies, or study. On rare occasions we found time to watch the tube or just plain relax.

It was our time, and no matter what we did, we enjoyed it!

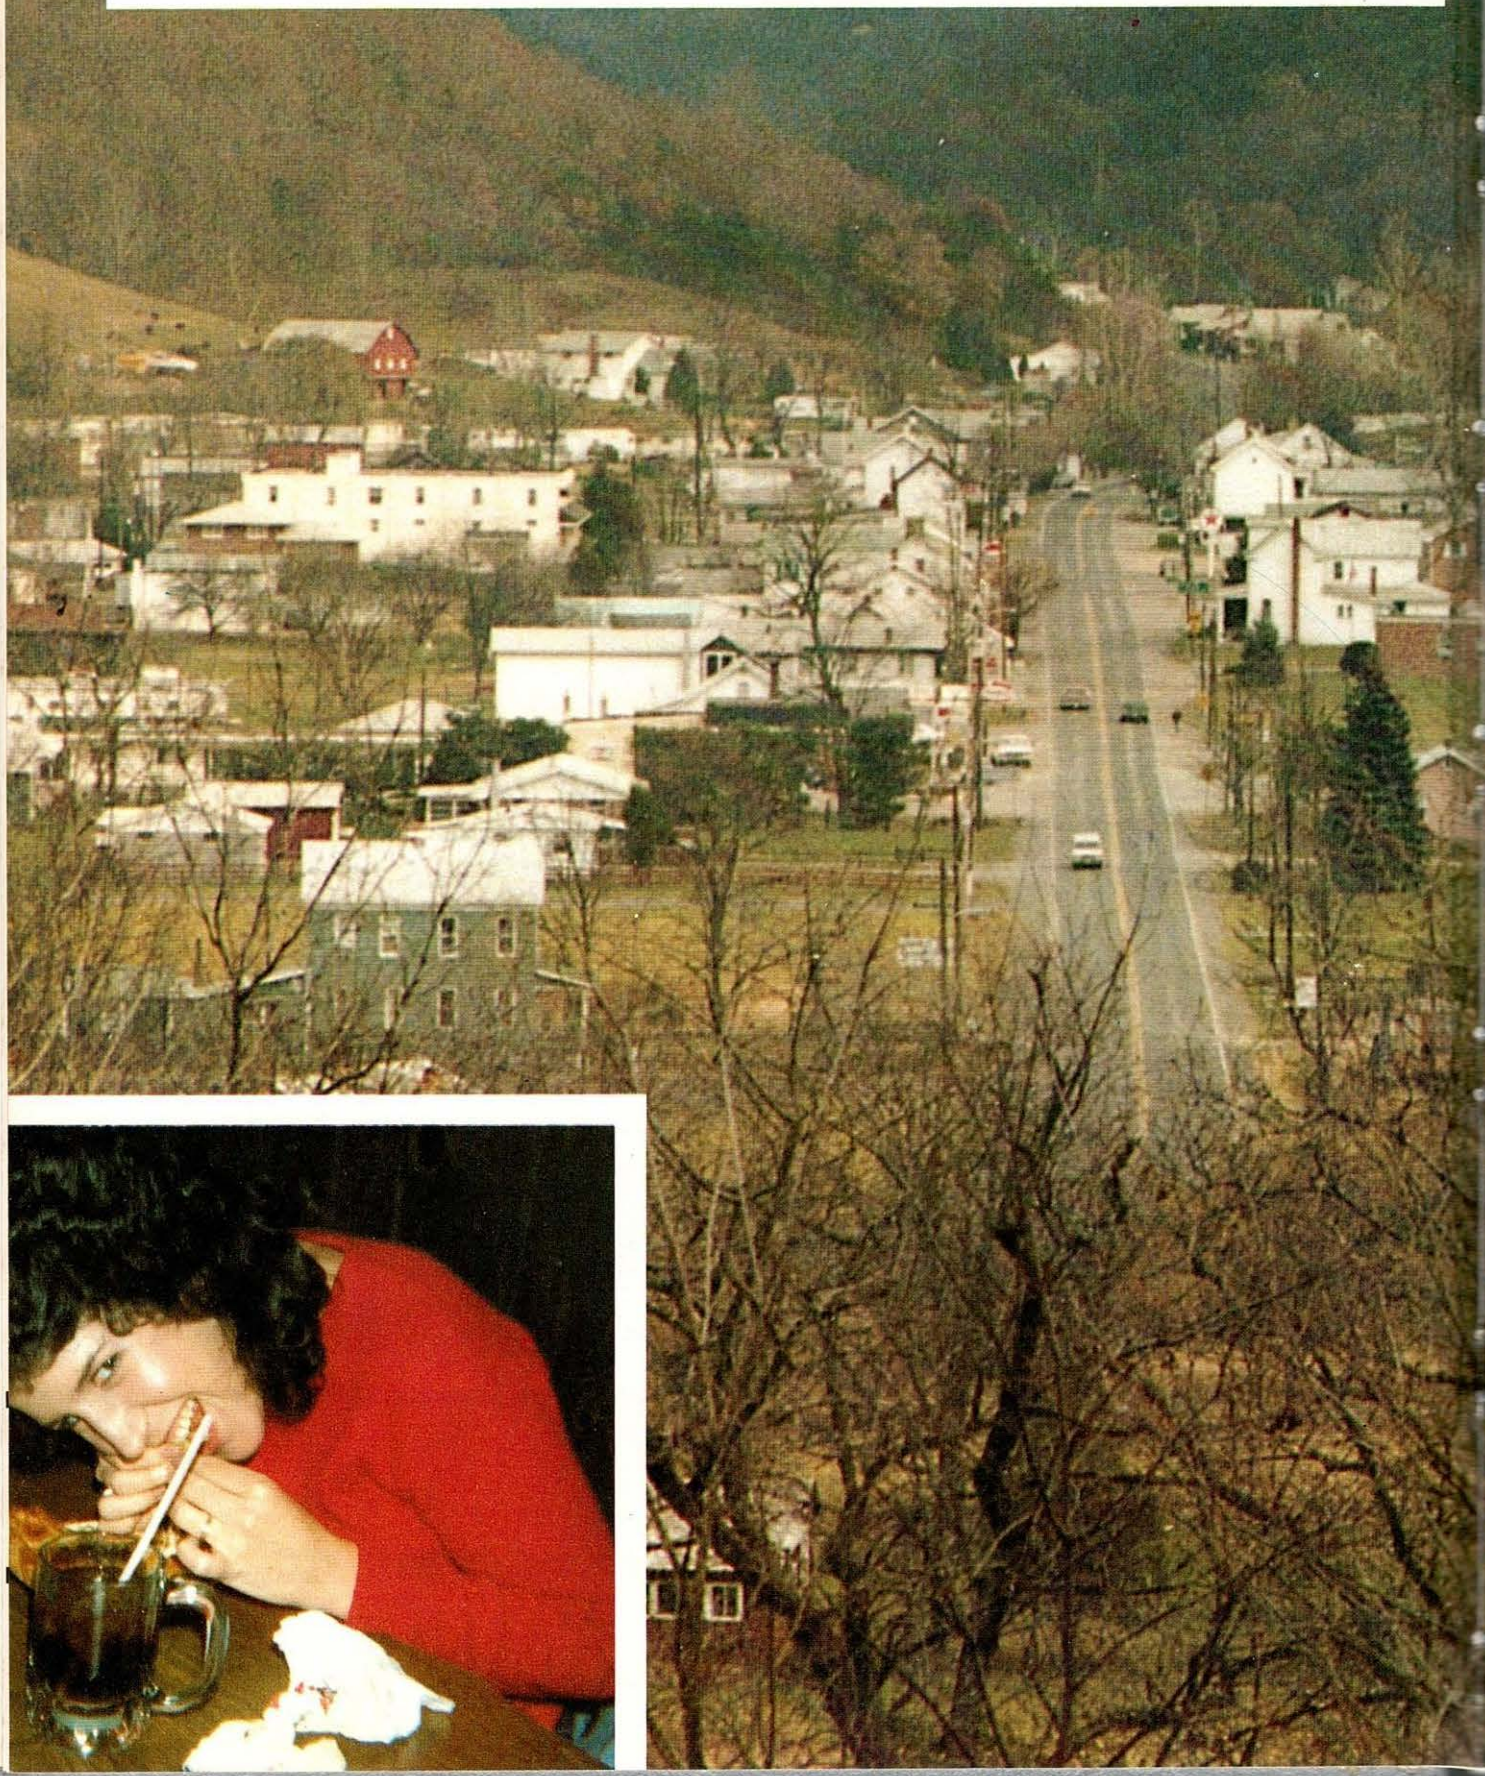
STUDENT LIFE

NO PLACE TO GO . . .



And all night to get there.

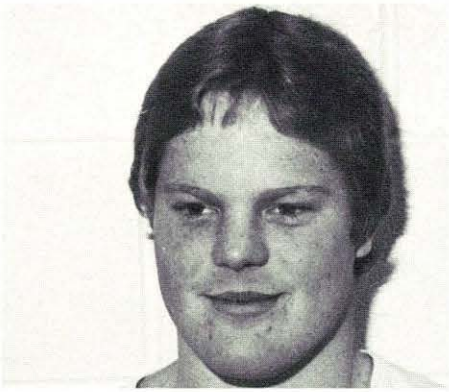
"What do we do tonight?" is a question commonly asked this year. Places to go and things to do in our immediate area come few and far between. Some students went out to look for excitement while others created their own.

An evening at home was a good economical idea. Besides saving fuel, the parent-supplied "munchies" saved the expense of eating out. Listening to music, watching T.V. and playing video games usually highlighted these evenings.

The city of Cumberland and places for dates are at least five miles from school. Going to the new Country Club Mall to see one of six movies was the most popular choice of entertainment. Those who were fortunate enough to have cash to spare even managed to get something to eat.

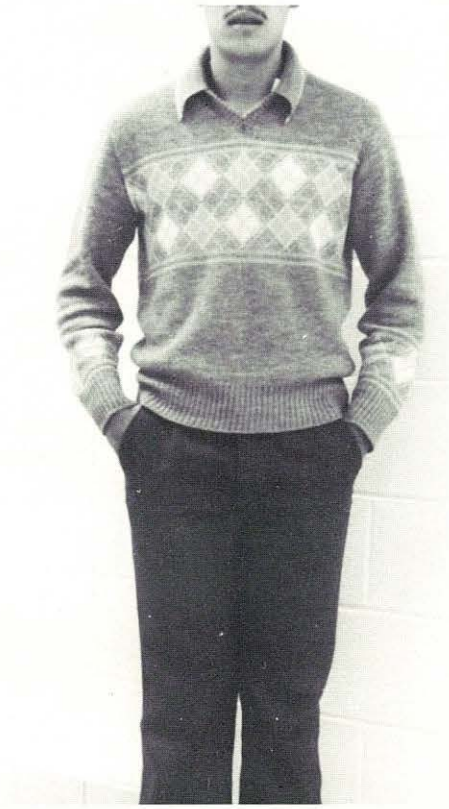
From top to bottom

Lori Collins shows the usual hairstyle of the FHS girls.



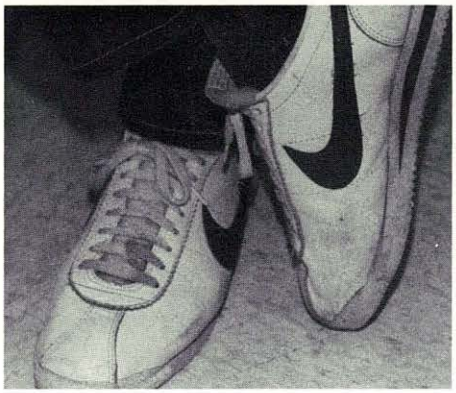
The short and feathered look is modeled by Jimmy Rowe.

Helen Clark is wearing bow tie collar with a peter-pan neckline.



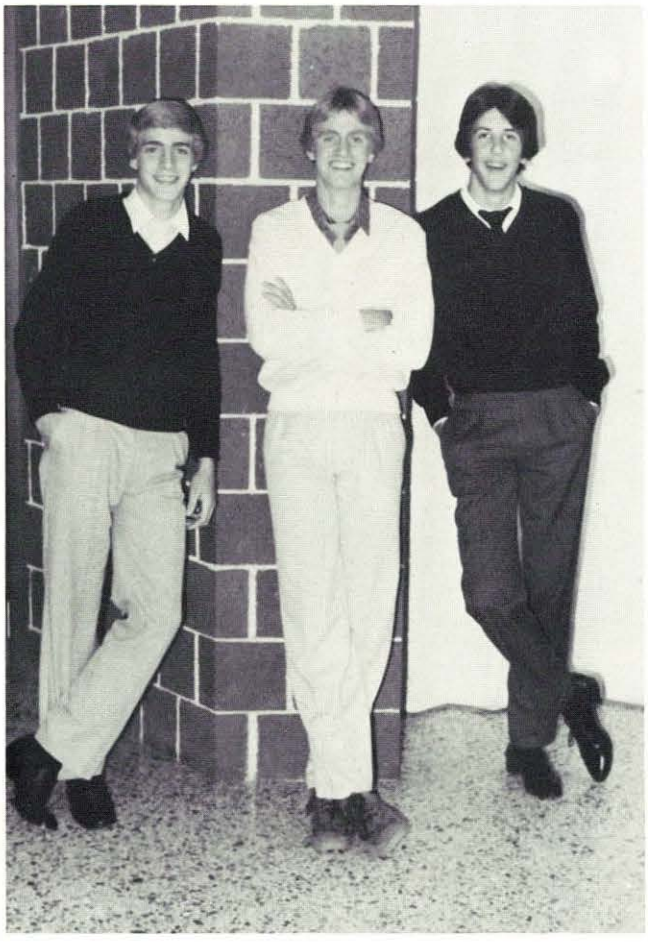
Claudio is in style with dress pants and a V-neck sweater.

Everywhere you look you see Docksiders or Boatshoes.

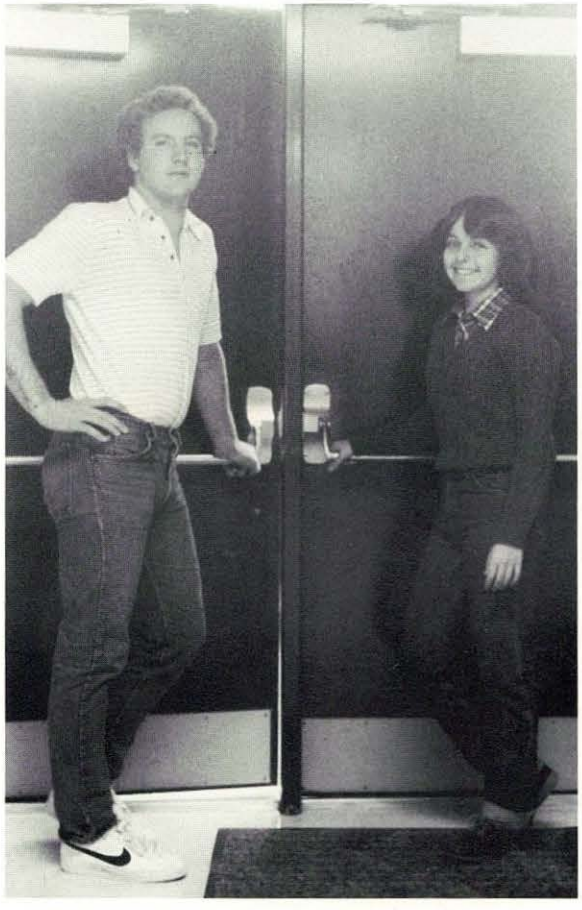


And if you do not own Nikes, you don't own tennis shoes!

"I beg your Chardon?" Everyone wants to show off their designer jeans.



Scott Turley, Brian Lechliter, and David Rector have "The Look." The styles of earlier decades are being seen again in the 1980's.



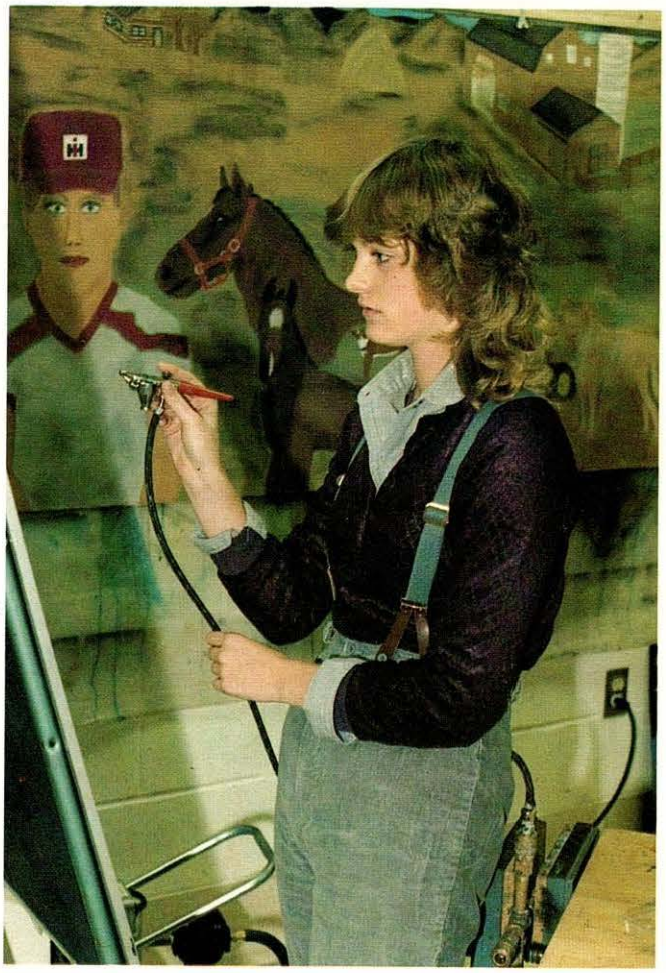
Ralph Campbell and Vonda Shipley feel comfortable in blue jeans and V-necks.

LOOKING GOOD . . .

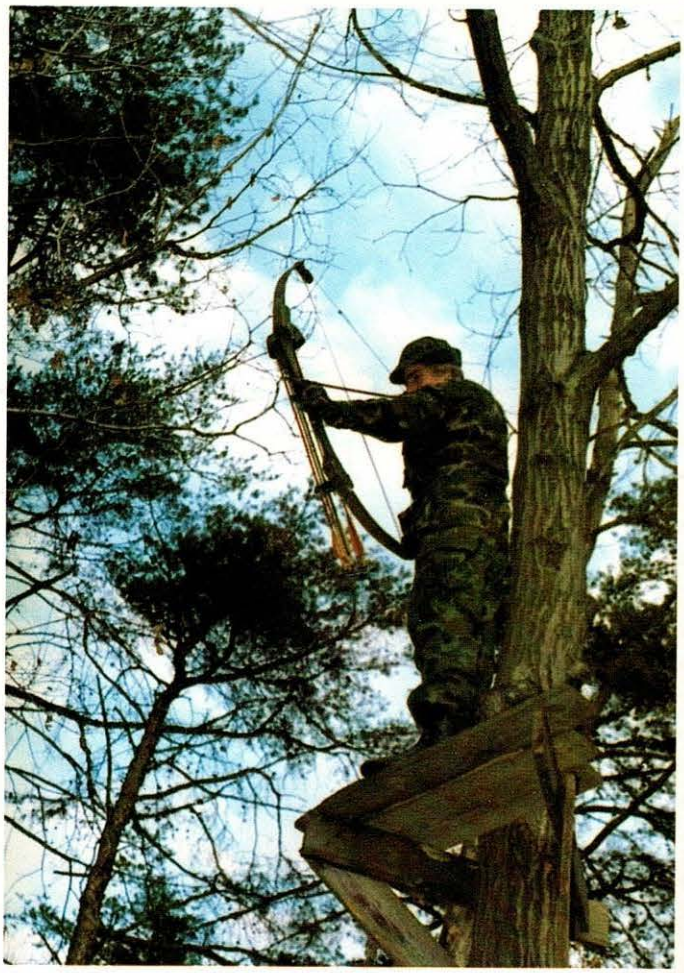
Taking pride in our appearance, a neater, dressier look marked the students at Frankfort this year. The "preppie" look called for a return to classic fashions: blazers and wool-plaid skirts; sweaters and button-down collared shirts; knee socks and flat-soled shoes.

For students who would rather "save an alligator by killing a preppie," fashionable meant designer labeled jeans and Nike shoes.

Others searched the pages of "Gentleman's Quarterly" and "Seventeen" seeking the unusual. Knickers, baggies, and narrow ties decorated these innovative students.



One of Kim Smith's hobbies is art and she is shown here doing an airbrush painting.



While in his favorite tree stand, Scott Turley could use a scope on his bow to see if that deer has horns!

Kathy Gilbert, Michele Clayton, Cl.eryl Hahn, Trish Petry, and Kim Petry dance the night away every Monday.

AFTER THE BELL . . .

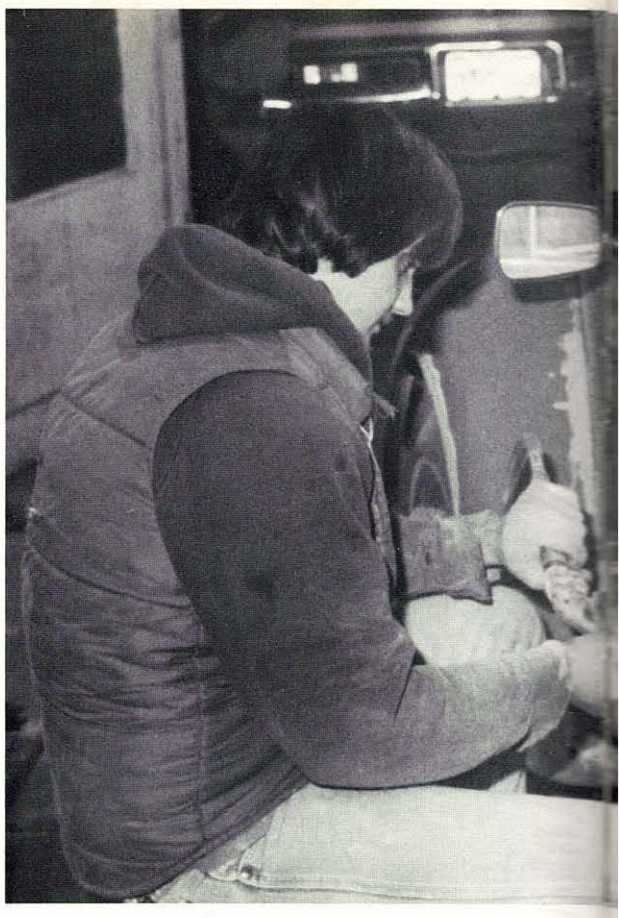
When not involved in school, we were rarely at a loss for activities to fill our time. Group and private lessons in music, dance, gymnastics, or aerobics were not only enjoyable, but a learning experience. Outdoor sports ravaged from leisurely hunting or sunning to fast-paced biking. Sometimes relaxing at home with a hobby was enjoyable. Students found themselves involved with model-building, painting, needlework, woodwork, model railroading, and a variety of other activities.

During the winter Kenny Rector thinks there is no better place to "hit the slopes" than Canaan Valley Resort Area.

During the summer there is no better place than the beach for Rhonda Skidmore and Jennifer Martz to catch some rays.

Timmy Wigfield and Mark Clayton feel that dirt biking is the only way to go and they are usually going most of the time.

"The price is right," says Scott at Ratcliff's Market.



Dave Shriver spends grinding hours at Alkire's Body Shop.

FIVE TO NINE . . .

Inflation is everywhere. The money crunch has even hit the students here at Frankfort High School. The value of the dollar is going down and the prices of what it will buy are going up. Money for gas, movies, and nights on the town seems hard to come up with. Working after school and on weekends seems to be the only solution, while others work just to occupy their time.

"Working gives me money to spend on going out and having fun", says Bill Shoenadel.

Kelly Bratt said, "I started working to get out of going to school for a full day", but her reason later changed to a more common one: economic necessity!

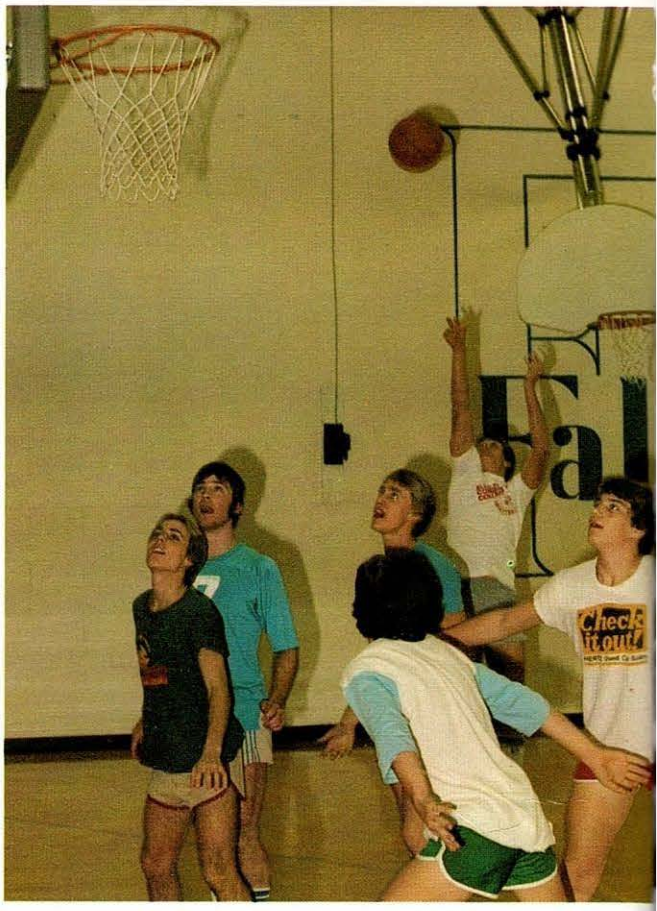
The band gives an outstanding performance for the Queen and her Court, as honor band at the Preston County Buckwheat Festival.



Boys' basketball players practice hard to get ready for a winning season.

This clowning crew brought the house down in their Senior Class Play, "Rest Assured."

AFTER HOURS . . .
Still Involved With School.

Many of us spent our extra time in school related activities. Friday night football games, Tuesday night basketball games, and Monday night wrestling matches were as much fun to participate in as they were to watch. Band members were busy eleven weeks in a row going to competitions and various performances.

But participation included hours of practice to attain the perfection each of us strived for. After school was an ideal time for three or four hours of practice. The seniors found time for "last minute" touch-ups only an hour before the performance of the senior class play. But whatever we participated or competed in, we were proud to represent Frankfort High School.

People are the center of all things. Whether young or old it is people who make the world go around. Doctors, lawyers, teachers, and business men all have their place in society. America's youth is equally important. The future is in our hands. At home and here at school we learn and shape ourselves and our personalities for our future endeavors.

All types of people make up the student body here at Frankfort. The brains, the browns, the jocks, and the prissies are only a few. But whoever we are, we're proud to make up the foundation of our school.

Seniors . . .

Nineteen Eighty-two! The year that we thought would never arrive, the year we could not wait for.

We started our Senior year with a lot of anticipation, keeping one thought in the back of our minds, "Only nine more months to go." We were surprised to find how quickly those nine months did go.

Sitting at the far right of the gymnasium, center of the auditorium and going to lunch five minutes earlier, were privileges that made us the "Big Guys on Campus."

For some of us 1982 and our Senior year brought many memories. Our last football game, basketball game, halftime performance and prom, gave way to a sort of melancholy feeling.

Before we knew it, the Caps and Gowns we ordered in October were on us in May. After graduation and the parties, we were all faced with the same question, "Where do we go from here?" College, jobs, and taking it easy for a year, were some of the answers. But whatever we decided, we'll always remember the friends and memories we made at Frankfort High School.

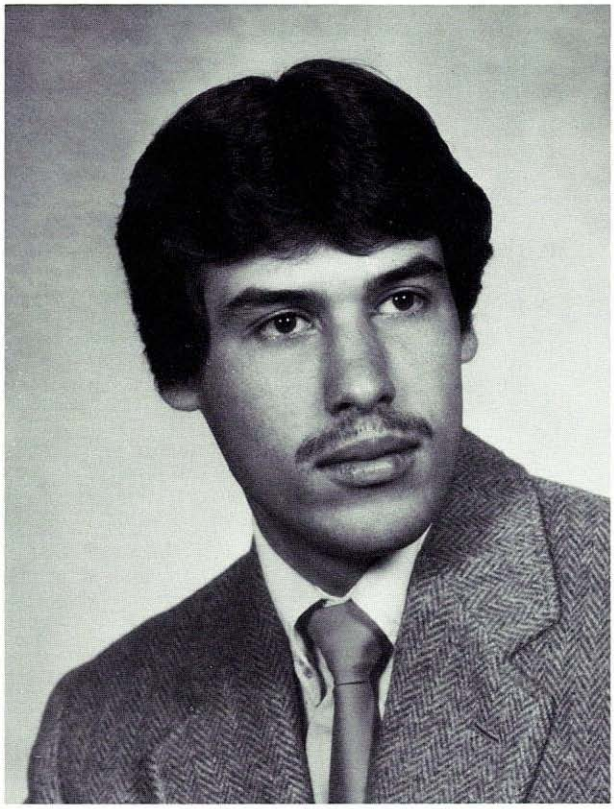
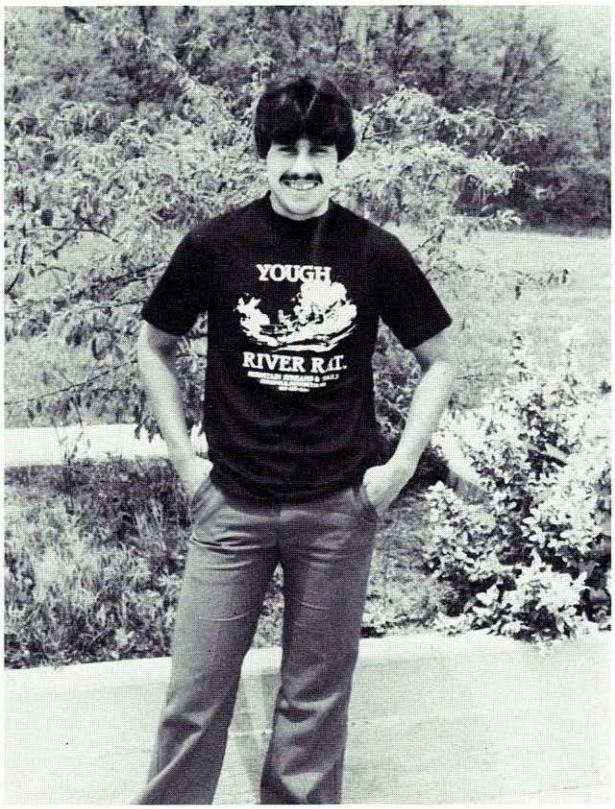
AFS Exchange Student





Claudio Arce Venegas is the 1981-82 A.F.S. student at Frankfort High School. His hometown is San Antonio de Belen, Costa Rica, which is a small industrialized town about one-half the size of Cumberland, Md. There he lives with his mother, Aracelly, and his father, Edwardo, who works as a market manager. Claudio has two sisters, Gabriela, 14, and Milagro, 13, and one brother, Eduin, who is 16 years old. During his stay in the U.S., Claudio's host family is the Robert Cooper family, who live in Fort Ashby, WV.

Claudio enjoys playing all sports except football, which is not played in his home country. He especially likes basketball, as he played on his high school team in Costa Rica. Claudio also took part this year in intramural basketball here at Frankfort as a member of the "War Pigs."

Claudio decided he would like to come to the United States as a part of the A.F.S. program to gain a better understanding of the English language and to learn more about American culture. He will very much miss the many new friends he has made during his experience in the United States.

Juniors . . .

One step from the top, the class of '83 are geared up for the year ahead. This year they worked hard and displayed their school spirit by winning big at homecoming. With a lot of hard work, they provided a prom to be long remembered by the Seniors, knowing that the next one is their's.

Sophomores . . .

Two years have passed and we anxiously await the third, looking forward to being in the upper class of Frankfort. No more first period P.E. and worrying about how our hair looks the rest of the day. Hoping to get lucky enough to be asked to the prom (next year we do the asking). Two years down and only two more to go.

Freshmen . . .

The year 1985 seemed a long way off for the Freshman class. Their first few days here were spent getting used to new faces and finding their way to strange classrooms. But they came a long way in a short time. Showing a lot of school spirit, winning spirit yells and working hard on their homecoming float, they promise a great future for F.H.S.

Whether on the football field or on the tennis court, we practiced and sweated endless hours striving to be the best.

Getting home from practice after six didn't allow much time to eat and do all of the homework the teachers expected us to do.

Climbing out of bed with stiff necks and sore legs seemed to be worthwhile when we won a game or our own event.

Although we didn't win as much as we wanted to, we were proud of our achievements.

The Frankfort Falcon Football Team opened the 1981 season with a disappointing loss to Petersburg 13-0. However, the Falcons did not quit and battled back to win two in a row over Moorefield and Valley. The next week Hampshire came to Falcon country and edged the Falcons 9-7 on three fieldgoals. With their record now at 2-2 the Falcons traveled to Beall and nipped the Mountaineers 10-8 on a fieldgoal. Homecoming week brought high spirits to Frankfort and also the states 2nd rated team Mussleman. The Falcons fought hard but were defeated 14-7. At 3-3 the Falcons won three straight games whipping University High, Berkeley Springs, and Central Preston, before being edged out in a heartbreaking loss to Keyser in overtime 15-8. The Falcons ended a successful season with a 6-4 record and kept up the winning tradition at Frankfort.

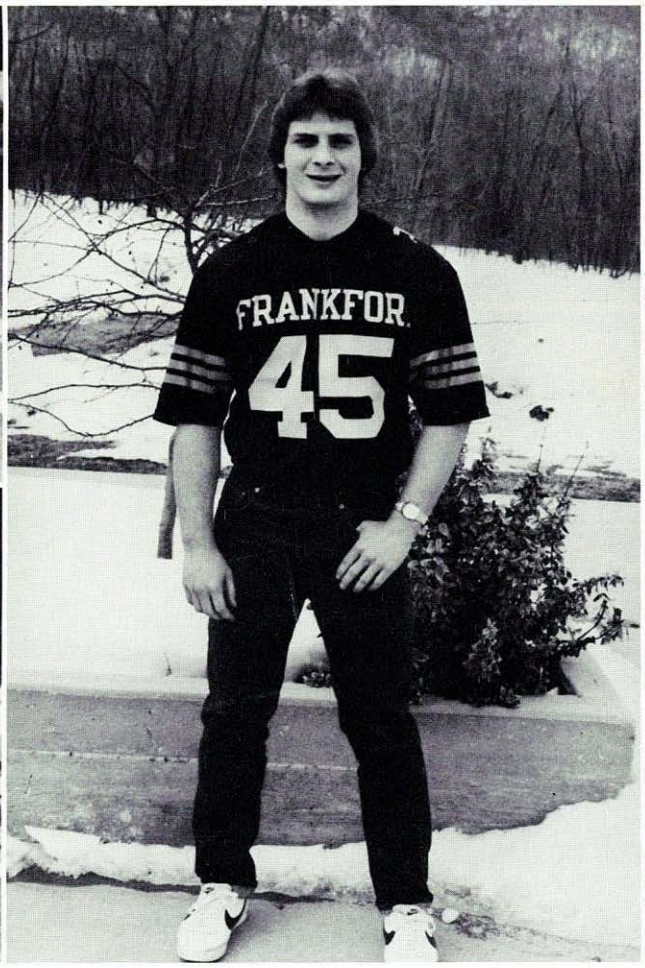
Barry White — All-State



Barry White, one of Frankfort High School's most exciting and outstanding athletes, received the thrill of a football player in his senior year. He was selected by a unanimous vote as running back on the Class AA All-State football team in West Virginia. The following statistics, along with his great attitude, determination and team leadership, were impressive enough to earn Barry the state honor. He gained 1307 yards, scored 117 points, kicked 3 field goals, and 19 extra points!

Barry's football career began when he was a pee-wee player for the Ridgeley Mini-Hawks. As a Ridgeley Ram he was the leader in rushing and scoring in the Cumberland Area Youth Football League. The William Bruce Memorial Award for the outstanding player in the league was presented to him when he completed his career as a Ram. His outstanding high school career began as a Freshman at Frankfort when he started as both a defensive and an offensive player. Honors during his four years as a Falcon include the following: All-Area second team in his sophomore year; Special Mention All-State, All Potomac Valley Conference team, and All-Area team in his junior year and in his senior year along with the All-State honor came All-Potomac Valley Conference team and All-Area team.

Barry will be a great asset to any college football team.

The 1981-82 Falcon Varsity Basketball Team finished a successful season with a 14-8 record. The team started the season by winning two in a row before being halted by the number one team in the area, Fort Hill. The Falcons entertaining their own annual Christmas Tournament were stopped again in the first round by University High. They won the consolation game over George Mason to obtain third place. Starting their winning ways again the Falcons won three in a row before losing two in a row to Keyser and Moorefield. Now half way through their season, the Falcons went on a tear by winning seven in a row, one against Keyser, this was the first time they had beaten the Golden Tornado since 1979. Rated number four in the area, Frankfort faced number one rated Fort Hill and again were edged 56-53. The team then traveled to Moorefield and avenged an earlier loss by crushing the Yellow Jackets. The Falcons ended their regular season by losing two in a row to Hampshire and Jefferson. In the Sectional tournament the Falcons were upset by Petersburg in overtime 70-66. With their successful record, the team won a share of the P.V.C. title and were also the Mineral County League Champions.

Catch That FALCON SPIRIT

Behind all those rowdy football games and exciting basketball games, is a squad of six girls who spent long hours of hard practicing and many fundraisers, to cheer our Fantastic Falcons on to a Victorious season.

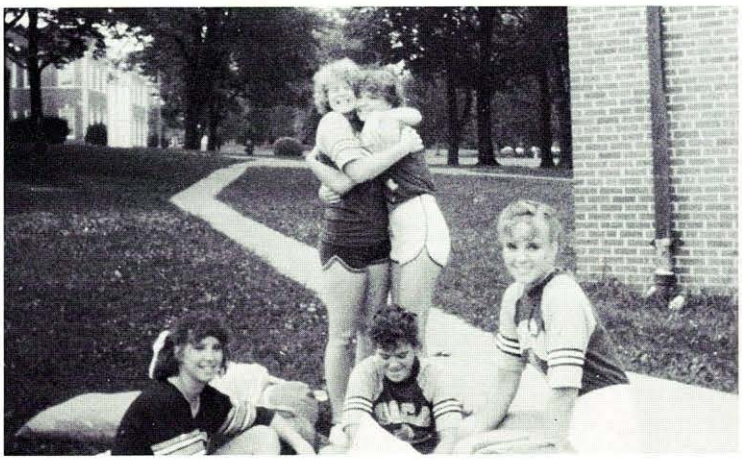
Throughout the summer, these girls spent many hours in the hot sun preparing for a very full year ahead. Along with the practices at school, they also attended a cheerleading camp held at West Virginia Wesleyan College. At this camp the girls spent four days and four nights learning new chants and cheers to help promote the spirit at Frankfort High School. The cheerleaders were awarded two 2nd and 3rd place awards in competitions held nightly. Even though there were pulled muscles and shin splints, they were very proud of their achievements.

After what seemed like a very short summer, it was back to school to show the other squads and the student body what they had learned. This task was accomplished slowly but surely starting with "Meet the Squad" night.

Between cheering the Football team on to a winning season, and doing the same for the Basketball team, they had a very busy schedule. But, through all the hard work and tiring trips, they each gained a year to long be Remembered!

Our cheerleaders show their spirit on and off the floor, as they are shown here on a break.

After a long day of learning many cheers, time is taken to "goof-off" and rest before competition starts.



A long week of camp has finally come to an end. Although there were a lot of good times and friends made here, all are ready to go home to their own beds and friends.

1982 brought a new tradition of Sweetheart Queens to Frankfort. Five girls were nominated from each grade to be voted on as Miss Sweetheart for their class. The members of each grade voted on their own "sweetheart" and the four winners were crowned at the Sweetheart Dance which was held February 13. Music was provided by Norm Miller and the GO 106 Music Machine.

Miss Pep

Every year at the end of basketball season a girl is chosen as Miss Pep. The five contestants are nominated by the varsity cheerleaders. Qualifications for the girls are spirit, enthusiasm, and game attendance. This year Miss Pep was crowned at the Frankfort/Jefferson basketball game. The student body thought Lisa Harness demonstrated the qualities of spirit so she was chosen as Miss Pep, 1982.

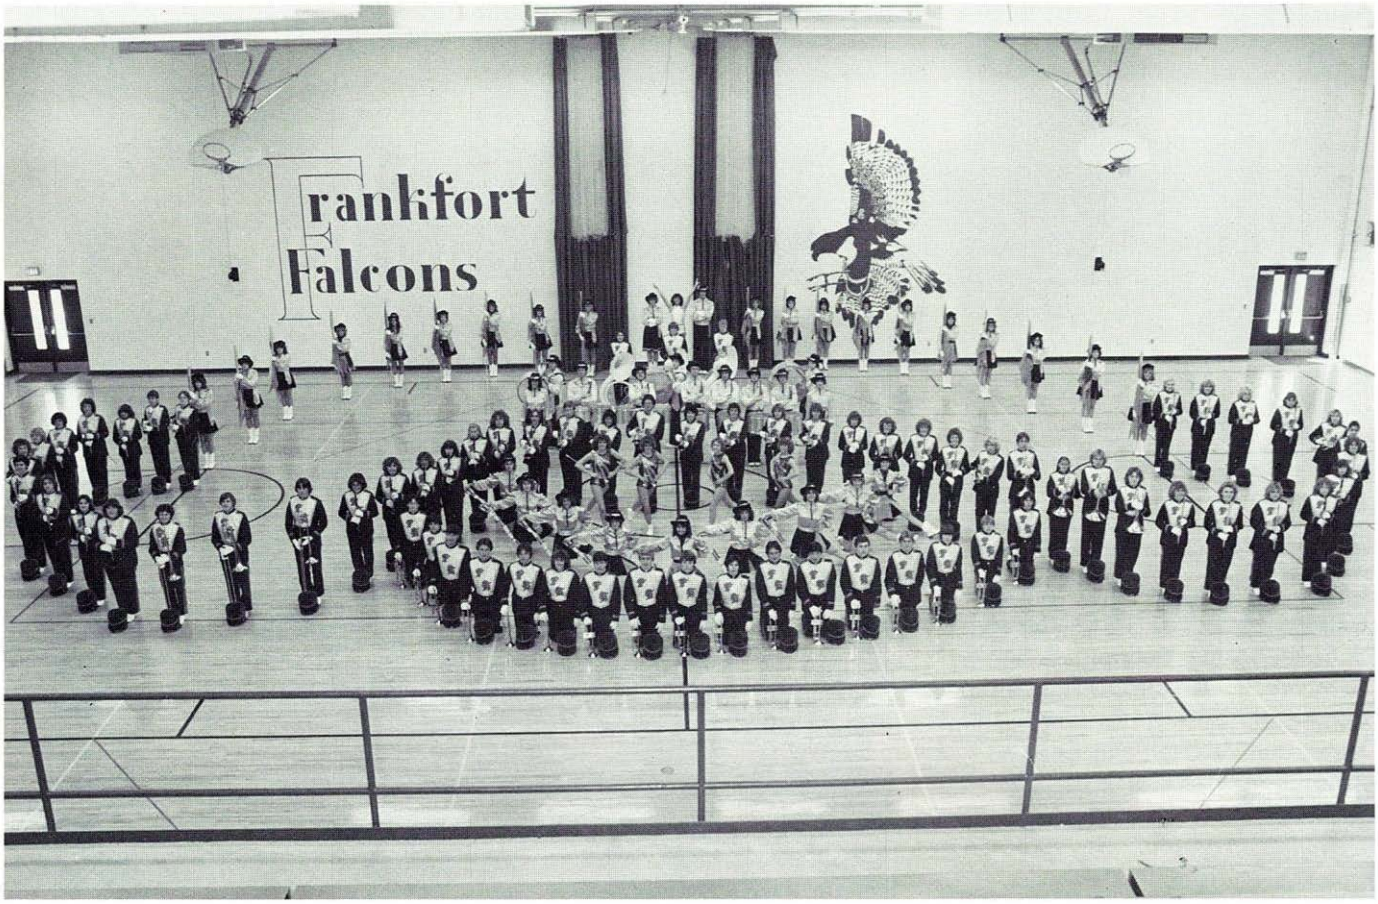
The Frankfort "Falcon" Marching Band



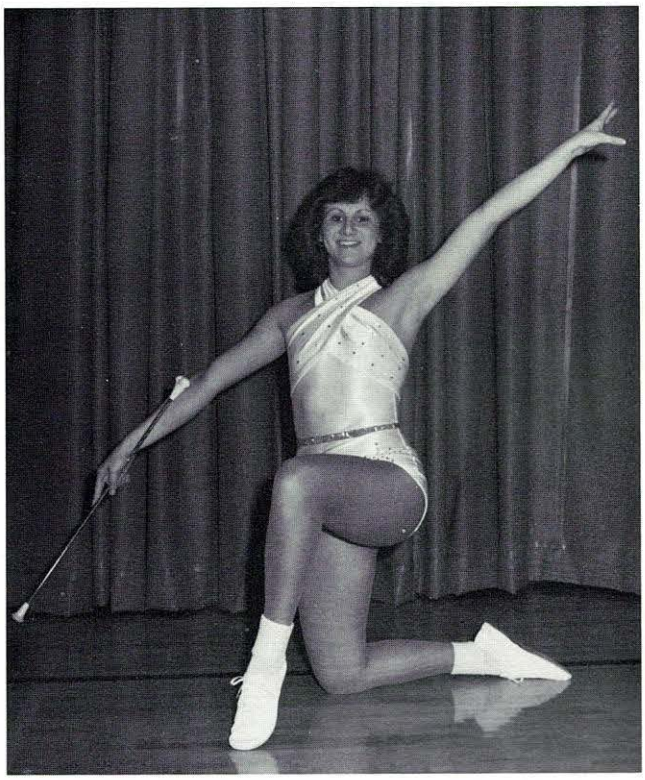
For the past six years Frankfort has been known for its athletic organizations. While the area was busy watching Frankfort football and basketball the band was slowly making its way into the spotlight.

The 1981-82 season brought a lasting reputation to the band. The "Nobody does it better" cliche came true for all of the band members.

With the help of Steve Taylor, Rodney Powers, and Lorainne Eckard of the FHS band caught the "Mountaineer Spirit." "Your Mama" and the "Pride of Frankfort High School" were two sayings that were not easily forgotten.

Hours were spent practicing after school and at band camp but none of the members put in more time than their director, DuWane Sandlin. He thought that writing the drills was difficult! Drilling them into the kids' heads was the real task. The band would not be where it is today if it weren't for his dedication to the band program. Mr. Sandlin, the pride of the band members, the Band Booster Organization, and the support of the area all add up to one thing: Our band is number one! "And that's a fact Jack!"

DRUM MAJORS.
Conducting the band this year were Junior Drum Major Sonya Twigg and Senior Drum Major David Rector. Each year a junior is selected in order to gain the experience they will need for their senior year. Dave and Sonya did an outstanding job this year.



FEATURE TWIRLER.
This was Michele's fourth year as feature twirler for the marching band. She has been a twirling student of Denise Walker for seven years. Michele has won numerous awards and she was named the 1981 West Virginia State One, Two, and Three Baton Grand Champion. She hopes to continue twirling at West Virginia University in the fall.

MAJORETTES.
This year's majorette squad consisted of Cheryl Hahn, sophomore; Beth Krantz, junior; Mary Brant, sophomore; and Lisa Robertson, junior. These four twirlers won the Top Team Trophy at the Frostburg De Company Competition held in January.

SILK SQUAD. Standing: L. Hitt, T. Scarlett, P. Smith, C. Dixon, D. Bower, T. Johnson, L. Collins, K. Petry, T. Wotring, S. Thompson and M. Barker. Kneeling: T. Evans, K. Rowe, V. Chaney, K. Norman, D. Holt and K. Ross. In the front are Captain, Robin Combs and Lieutenant, Lisa Harness.

The Falcon Band has taken the field in competition. "And that's a fact Jack!"

Bill Snyder, the trumpet section, and the drum line warm up with "Spirit of Spain."

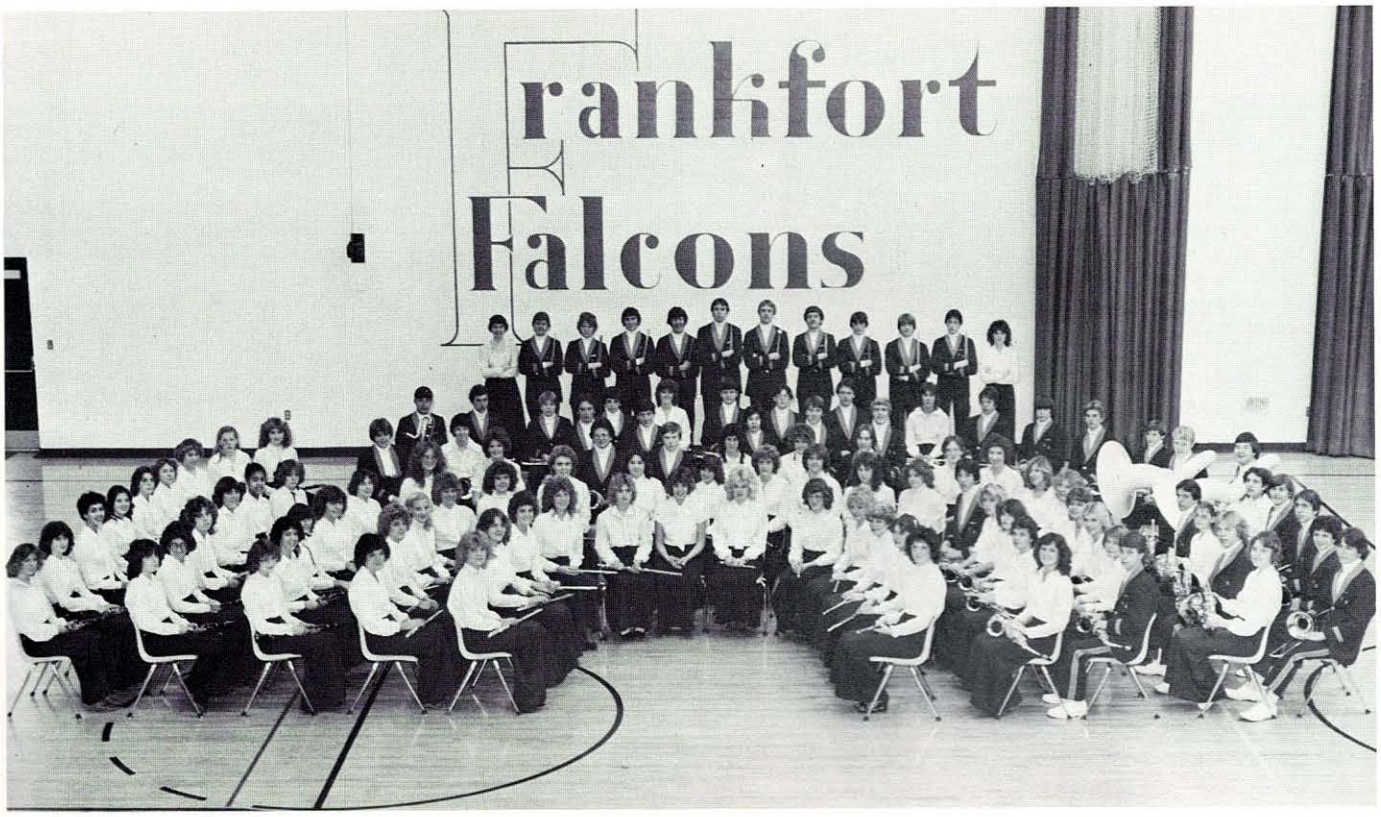
The percussion section warms up before the Preston County Buckwheat Festival.

Larry Jackson and the trumpet section add a sound of excitement to the show.

Dave Rector and Sonya Twigg seem to think that these trophies are just a few more to add to the collection.

The Falcon Band finished the year with more success. After working many months they were able to raise the money needed for the Six Flags Band Festival Competition in Jackson, NJ. The band received first place in their division and brought back awards for best drum majors, majorettes, color guard, and drum line. They were also named first runner-up in the entire competition. Congratulations, Band!

Michele Clayton and the members of the rifle squad perform their hat dance to "Birdland."



CONCERT BAND. The concert band performs twice a year at the Christmas and Spring Concerts. Each year in May the band is required to attend the State Band Festival. The band has received superior ratings for the past three years. The concert band also won first place at the Strawberry Festival Competition in 1981.

On the hot, rainy evening of Thursday, May 27, 1982, one-hundred and forty-eight graduates said farewell to Frankfort High School.

The guest speaker for the ceremony was the Honorable A. James Manchin, West Virginia Secretary of State.

As the ceremony proceeded, many of the seniors began to realize what graduation signified. It was the end of twelve years of growing, of making friends and memories. Even though some days went slower than others we stuck it out. Now we realize that the past four years have been the best years of our lives.

Commencement also meant the beginning. College, work, and the long-awaited independence were in front of us. Our slates were wiped clean and the graduates realized it was time to start anew.

Beverly Felton gave the welcome for the ceremony.

Michele Clayton delivered the senior address.

Debbie Huff introduced the guest speaker, the Honorable A. James Manchin.

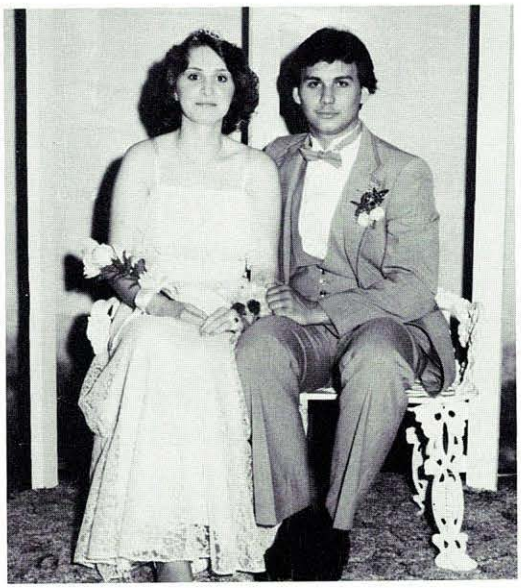
1982 Junior-Senior Prom

With the threat of an afternoon shower we began fixing our hair and dressing for the most glamorous gala of the year — the prom. As the evening of Saturday, May 1 drew near the rain clouds drifted away.

At seven-thirty couples began arriving for the dance. Tuxedos and gowns of various colors and designs were admired by everyone. After pictures, the ladies and their dates were escorted into the gym. Most couples enjoyed dancing to the music of Windfall while others preferred to sit and listen.

After the dance many couples went out to dinner. Warner's, Harrigan's, and Continental supplied good food for everyone. All too soon the evening came to an end but we were still left with the memories of our Junior-Senior Prom.



Tammy VanMeter and Shawn Barncord are the 1982 Prom Queen and King.

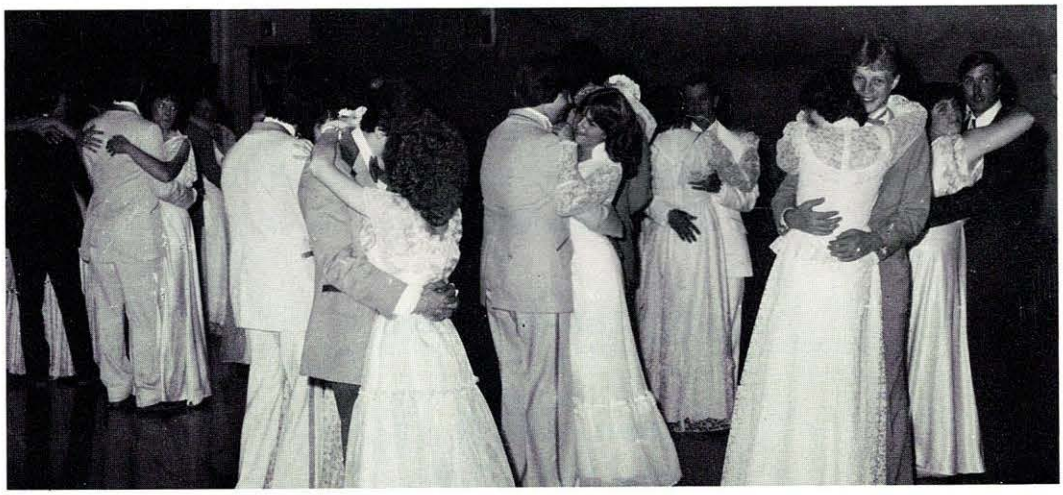
Jeff Long and Michele Clayton dance to the music provided by Windfall.

Members of the underclassmen served refreshments and were also ushers.

Everyone seemed to be having a good time at the dance.

Greg Fryer and Kim Blauch look like they've entered "another world."

The ushers check the table reservation list.



Everyone enjoyed dancing with that special someone during a slow song.

Approaching Summer With Mixed Emotions

June 10. The final day of the school year is greeted with mixed emotions. Though anticipation of lazy summer days is exciting, these last moments are somewhat sad as students cast glances at friends not to be seen again until fall.

Everyone is looking forward to a break in the work load and an end to the strains of the school routine. Sleeping in and spending a day at the pool are plans shared by teachers as well as students.

But as the vacation goes on students find themselves ready to return to school. After being home for two months, boredom strikes the students while parents begin to wish there was no such thing as a summer vacation.

So as we anxiously await the end of the school year we also wish it would never end. Those of us who have made new friends, made new memories, and reached new goals were proud of our accomplishments. Surely, the last days of school are full of mixed emotions.

YEAR

The Graduating Class of 1982.

1982 has brought a variety of changes to the Frankfort Talon. This year a theme for the yearbook was brought into existence. "Pride" is the basic idea seen throughout the book. There is also more copy than there has been in previous years. So when there is success there are people who deserve credit.

Mrs. Ellen Arnone, journalism and yearbook advisor at Beall High School, and Ms. Denise Walker, journalism advisor at Bruce High School gave helpful hints and different ideas which contributed to the new image of the book. A special thanks is extended to them for their time and creativity. Thanks also goes to our advisor, Mrs. Brakeall who allowed and helped us to put these ideas into use. Ruhl Studios and John Smith should also be commended for their photography.

Although it was difficult adapting changes and adding new ideas, the experience has been challenging as well as enjoyable. As you close this book on the 1982 school year, I hope you have found the material as entertaining as I have had in helping to produce it. It's something to be proud of.

It is time to end another year.
